*Other seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirty and sixty and a hundredfold. Mark 4:8

The BAPC Endowment Fund was established to enable members and friends of the congregation to make lasting gifts to advance the ministry of the church in perpetuity, above and beyond programs and activities that are supported by the church's annual budget.

According to its Charter, distributions from the Endowment Fund may be used for:

- Mission and Outreach opportunities
- Capital Improvements
- New or expanded Programs

On behalf of the Session, the Endowment Fund Committee annually welcomes applications for worthy projects or activities that meet the above criteria from Divisions, Committees, Staff, and Members.
