

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

... Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Lighting the Hope Candle Pam Cato & Dan Seay

One: On this first Sunday in Advent we light this candle and call it Hope.

All: When we light it, we are excited.
We are looking forward to something special.

One: What can it be? What is going to happen?

All: God is coming into our world.
Emmanuel is on his way.

One: We light this candle for all God's people,
Struggling to be bearers of hope
in a troubled world.

All: God as we wait for your coming,
Give light, give hope.

(As the Hope Candle is lit we join together in silent prayer and confession).

Prayer (All):

A candle burns,
The sign of our hope.
God of hope and good news,
Come to us again this Advent season.
May your hope live within us,
Burning as a light in our lives. Amen.

Sung Response O Come, O Come, Emmanuel (vss. 1, 5-7)

RESPONDING TO GOD'S LOVE

*Affirmation of Faith– Brief Statement of Faith, Abba Rev. Alex Creager

We trust in God,
whom Jesus called Abba, Father.
In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image
male and female, of every race and people,
to live as one community.
God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation.
In everlasting love,
the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people
to bless all families of the earth.
Hearing their cry,
God delivered the children of Israel
from the house of bondage.
Loving us still,
God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant.
Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child,
like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home,
God is faithful still.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST READING: 1 Thessalonians 3: 9-13 (CEB)

⁹How can we thank God enough for you, given all the joy we have because of you before our God? ¹⁰Night and day, we pray more than ever to see all of you in person and to complete whatever you still need for your faith. ¹¹Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus guide us on our way back to you. ¹²May the Lord cause you to increase and enrich your love for each other and for everyone in the same way as we also love you. ¹³May the love cause your hearts to be strengthened, to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his people. Amen.

SECOND READING: Jeremiah 33: 14-16

¹⁴The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ¹⁵In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: “The LORD is our righteousness.”

WELCOME! We’re glad and grateful that you have joined us for worship today. We pray that you will experience the love of God and the presence of Christ in our midst and that you will be nurtured for fruitful seeking and serving in the days to come this week.

For those worshipping in-person in the sanctuary: Because infections from the Delta variant of COVID are increasing and both vaccinated and unvaccinated persons may be worshipping today – we will be circulating air in the sanctuary robustly. We also request that, especially during the singing of hymns and responses, facial coverings be worn. It would be an expression of one of this church’s Core Values – being a Caring Community. Thank you.

WORSHIP INFORMATION

Each Sunday at 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 we worship in the Sanctuary. The 11:00 service has an opportunity for live online participation, as well.

Children are welcomed and included at both services. At both services care for children infants through 2-year-olds is provided in our professionally staffed nursery along the Welcome Corridor. An usher will be glad to direct you. Service activity bags are available for children. See an usher.

Hearing Assistance – The Sanctuary is equipped with a hearing loop system. Those with a hearing aid or a cochlear implant turn it to the t-coil setting. Wireless hearing aids are available in the sound cabinet. Please see an usher for help in obtaining one.

At the 11:00 a.m. sanctuary service, Prayer Requests, written and placed in the designated basket in the narthex, will be shared with worship leaders and, if desired, included in the community’s prayers.

To get information on serving as a Worship Liturgist, please contact Kathy Sestak at 804-272-7631.
